

“I always had a hard time fitting in in college and high school and Mensa made me feel like I belonged somewhere.” - Alison, Greater New York Mensa

Leadership and Volunteer Opportunities Hone your leadership skills by organizing a Special Interest Group, holding an officer position in your local chapter, or serving on a national committee. Workshops also offer guidance within Mensa and beyond.

Scholarships and Awards The Mensa Foundation awards thousands of dollars in scholarships for college-bound Mensa members. Let Mensa Foundation awards and grants support you on your education and career journey.

Connections Going away for college can be daunting, but Mensa is here to help. Connect with mentors, peers, and friends in our over 125 chapters across the country.

Career Opportunities Mensa Works is a job board for Mensans to post a résumé and search for highly targeted employment opportunities.

Interest Groups Mensa's Special Interest Groups (SIGs) offer members a sense of community based around a common interest, regardless of your location. Find SIGs for hobbies and games, professional development and networking, support groups, and more.

- Important Discounts Transition to life away from home with benefits, including:
- Dell's Member Purchase Program, which comes with exclusive deals and rewards 35% discount with HP
 - Up to 75% off regular prices both online and in store with Office Depot and OfficeMax
 - Additional member discounts with companies like GEICO, Choice Hotels, Priceline Travel, and more

Magazine Mensa membership includes a subscription to the award-winning Mensa Bulletin magazine, a place not only to read but to contribute. The transition from high school to college is a time for personal growth. Let the Bulletin be an outlet for your changing interests, opinions, and specialized knowledge.